Journal of Open Learning and Research Communication

Call for Paper, Book reviews and Research Synopsis for Volume-VII (2022) and VIII (2023)

The Journal of Open Learning and Research Communication (JOLRC) is a peer- reviewed international inter-disciplinary journal. It is published annually by the Krishna Kanta Handiqui State Open University, Guwahati, Assam, India. The primary mission of the JOLRC is to facilitate discussion and disseminate ideas related to Open and Distance Learning (ODL) within the academic community. Additionally, it also lays equal emphasis on publishing research papers from other academic disciplines and research areas from India as well as abroad. We are currently inviting previously unpublished research papers and book reviews and research synopsis for seventh (Volume VII, 2022) and eighth (Volume VIII, 2023) edition of the journal, which are scheduled for publication in 2024.

JOLRC aims to offer a common platform for sharing new ideas while accepting differences; improve mutual communication and increase cooperation and shared learning. All submitted research papers undergo a double-blind peer review process. The papers are evaluated by a distinguished board of Editors and Reviewers, and accepted for publication only if they meet the set scholarly standards of originality, significance and rigour in advancing the knowledge of existing and new research areas.
